

Public Speaking and Communication Training

A free introductory class on presentations is being offered in two sessions on September 14 and September 28. We will meet at the Waterworks Learning Center 1801 Circle Drive from 10:00 am until 12 noon both days.

You will need to plan on attending both sessions in order to get full benefit from the program.

Training by experienced speakers will cover many topics necessary to become confident and comfortable in speaking before an audience either large or small.

Some topics are:

Introducing Speakers,
Preparing a Successful Speech,
Speaking to Diverse Audiences,
Visual Aids and Props,
Gestures and Body Language

For questions or to register for the workshop call Hester Schwarzer 817-507-6340 or send an email to hesterschwarzer@att.net. You may also register at the September Master Gardener meeting.
